

Friday, May 12

9:00-10:30 a.m.

Monetary Appraisal of Historical Records

Ray Nugent, ASA, ISA, Nugent Appraisal

Archivists appraise records for historical value – but how do professional appraisers arrive at a monetary value for historical records? An accredited professional appraiser will explain.

10:30-10:45 a.m.

Break

10:45-11:45 a.m.

Hurricane Preparedness and Mitigation Forum

Dorothy “Dolly” Blunt, State Archives of Florida

Liz Dunham, Tampa Bay History Center

An open session to discuss how institutions prepared for disasters, especially hurricanes, last year. This is a chance to share with each other what worked, what didn't work, and what you plan to do differently this year. Session leaders will compile notes from the session and make them available to all participants and to the State Historical Records Advisory Board for planning purposes. Bring plenty of questions and examples of any disaster preparedness/response plans/forms you might have.

12:00-1:15 p.m.

Lunch (on your own)

1:15 and 2:15 p.m.

Tours: State Archives of Florida

Visit the public research facilities and archival collections storage areas in the R.A. Gray Building, then tour the archival collections processing facilities and Conservation Laboratory, as well as public records storage areas and vaults, at the Florida Records Storage Center. Or start at the Records Center and then tour the Gray Building!

Cover illustration: This photograph of a painting shows Florida's Old Capitol as it might have appeared in 1902 beneath a dramatic twilight sky. The original oil painting was done by Ed Jonas in 1982. Courtesy Florida Photographic Collection, State Archives of Florida.

Society of Florida Archivists

2006 Annual Meeting

May 10-12, 2006

THINKING OUTSIDE THE BOX:
Beyond the Walls of the Archives

Homewood Suites
Tallahassee, Florida

Wednesday, May 10

11:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Registration

1:00-5:00 p.m. Archival Description and EAD Workshop

John Nemmers, University of Florida

This workshop will offer an introduction to the EAD (Encoded Archival Description) descriptive standard and incorporating the standard into the archival workflow. In addition to reviewing basic descriptive practices in archives, the workshop will focus on the methods and tools used in the creation and sharing of EAD finding aids. Participants will gain practical experience encoding an EAD finding aid.

6:00 p.m. Hospitality Room

Join your colleagues at the hotel for relaxation and refreshments.

Florida State University football squad, Tallahassee, 1947
Courtesy Florida Photographic Collection, State Archives of Florida

Thursday, May 11

8:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. Registration

9:00-9:20 a.m. Welcome

JuDee Pettijohn, Deputy Secretary of State

9:30-10:30 a.m.

Archives in Education

Katrina Harkness, State Archives of Florida

KC Smith, Museum of Florida History

Liz Dunham, Tampa Bay History Center

This session will highlight ways that educators in various settings use archival records to assist in their teaching, and ways that archivists can assist educators in identifying and using archival records.

10:30-10:45 a.m.

Break

10:45 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Business Meeting and Special Presentations

State Historical Records Advisory Board

Florida Discovery Quincentennial Commission

12:00-1:30 p.m.

Lunch (on your own)

1:30-2:30 p.m.

Oral History for Archivists

Robin Sellers, Florida State University

This session will introduce archivists to basic oral history concepts and practices and offer advice to archivists in conducting and managing collections of oral histories.

3:00-5:30 p.m.

Mission San Luis Visit and Tour

Awarded 2006 Preserve America Presidential Award!

Bus will leave front of hotel at 3:00 p.m.

6:30 p.m.

Hospitality Room

Automobiles parked at First Presbyterian Church, Tallahassee, 1922
Courtesy Florida Photographic Collection, State Archives of Florida